

FLIGHTS MADE IN SWITZERLAND: Bern-based SkyWork Airlines operates Dornier 328 and SAAB 2000 aircraft to connect the Swiss capital with the main European cities. A number of top holiday destinations are added in the summer season.

In support of the operational organization we are searching for a dynamic personality:

Saab 2000 Licensed Engineer (f/m) 100%

Your tasks

- Line Maintenance on our Saab 2000 fleet
- AOG recoveries on short notice
- Possible assignment to temporary outstation work
- Occasional participation in maintenance projects

Your profile

- EASA Part 66 B1 or B1/B2 license with current Saab 2000 rating
- Current EWIS, FTS and Human Factor trainings
- Minimum 5 years experience on type (S2000)
- Willing to travel
- High level of flexibility in working times and prepared to work shifts
- You are able to work independently, reliable and under pressure
- Fluently english written and spoken (additional german of advantage)
- You should have general MS office user skills
- AMOS experience would be an advantage
- Highly motivated to aquire new fields of knowledge

We offer

- Responsible position within a young regional Swiss airline that aims to play an important role in the European market
- Attractive work place in a motivated team
- Professional and cooperative working environment
- Position in which your ideas and suggestions are heard and possibly transferred
- 5 weeks of vacation
- Good social insurances and attractive Fringe Benefits

Send us your complete application including photo and salary expectations by email to:
job@flyskywork.com

SkyWork Airlines AG | Human Resources | Tel.: +41 31 810 18 60
Aemmenmattstrasse 43 | CH-3123 Belp